When life feels overwhelming and hope seems out of reach, Doorways to Hope offers a way forward. In forty daily reflections, Christopher Chapman redefines hope – not as wishful thinking, but as a transformative force rooted in God's creative and redeeming presence.

This is a hope that meets us in our struggles, restoring what is lost. Doorways to Hope is a liberating guide for anyone feeling powerless or stuck, offering practical ways to embrace hope and join in the work of healing and change.

Christopher Chapman is an experienced spiritual director and retreat leader. He is a guest director at St. Beuno's Jesuit Spirituality Centre and an associate tutor at St. Augustine's College of Theology. He is the author of Seeing in the Dark, Earthed in God and Send my Roots Rain.
